

LES CHANTIERS

a call for musical projects 2022/23

HOW TO APPLY

A call for musical projects

Every year, the CIMN (International Centre for Nomad Musics) launches a call for projects to enable young artists and musicians to carry out their first musical creation under professional conditions.

Once the selection procedure completed, the selected projects will be supported and presented during the 13th edition of the festival « Les Départs de Babel » that will take place in Grenoble and the Isère department, from March 14th to April 9th, 2023.

« Velyeûza » La Miye aux tiroirs • Chantier 2019/2020

Selection criteria

The jury will focus on the following criteria :

- Music must be the centerpiece of the project whether it is written, improvised, electroacoustic, or a sound performance, and can be associated to other artistic forms such as dance, visual arts or multimedia...
- The submitted projects must be either original pieces or projects that have not been performed yet.
- The composer or musicians must be in their early professional career.
- The submitted project must reflect the festival's musical outlook, centered on music's cross-cultural significance, and open to the world's cultures.

« Au milieu de » Yui Sakagoshi • Chantier 2021/2022

« Noor » ▪ Chantier 2018/2019

The rules for participation

The candidates must take into account the following rules for participation :

- The « Chantiers » are open to any French or foreign citizens (registration is free)
- The work submitted must be original. The candidate's application guarantees the festival against any possible claim from a third party.
- The artists will be filmed, recorded and photographed during their performance. By applying, the artists give their agreement to the use and the broadcast of their image by the CIMN for promotional purpose.
- By applying, the artists agree to present their work in Grenoble within the dates set by the festival
- Application implies the full acceptance of the rules by the artists

Selection and support

- In october 2022, the jury will select several projects among the admissible ones.
- The deliberations of the jury will be confidential and won't be communicated.
- The selected projects will be offered support for production (logistics, service, video recording, technical or artistic support...) within the limits of the financial envelope set by the CIMN.
- Schedule and terms of this support will be jointly established before any final agreement.
- The CIMN will take care of recording the performance and creating a web-report, for later promotional use by the artists and the CIMN.
